- (ix) The Transportation (Traffic) and Commercial Departments of the Superior Revenue Establishment of State Railways.
- (x) The Establishment Department of State Railways.
- (xi) The Postal Superintendents (Class II) Service.

will be held under the following Rules at Allahabad, Bombay, Calcutta, Delhi, Lahore and Madras commencing on the 1st July, 1947. Candidates accepted for admission to the examination will be informed at what place and at what hour they should present themselves.

2. The examination will be a combined one for the purpose of filling vacancies in the services mentioned above. A candidate may apply for appointment to all or any of these services. If he wishes to be admitted as a candidate for more than one service, he need send in only one application. He will be required to pay the fees mentioned in the Rules once only and will not be required to pay separate fees for each service for which he applies.

3. A candidate seeking admission to the examination must apply to the Federal Public Service Commission, Kennedy House Annexe, Simla, on the attached form of application which must reach the Commission on or before the 30th April, 1947 accompanied by the necessary documents. No application received after that date will be considered.

4. Candidates should apply to the Provincial Governments or Administrations (to the Deputy Commissioner, Delhi in the case of Delhi Province) or Durbars for copies of the application and other forms and papers connected with the examination.

5. No allegation that an application form or a letter respecting such form has been lost or delayed in the post will be considered, unless the person making such allegation produces a

Post Office registration receipt or certificate of posting. Candidates who delay their applications or their requests for forms until a late date will do so at their own risk.

6. Candidates should state the name of the examination for which they have applied in all correspondence with the Federal Public Service Commission.

RULES.

1. A combined competitive examination will be held as announced in the above Notice for the purpose of filling vacancies in the following Services :—

- (1) The All-India Administrative Service ;
- (2) The Indian Foreign Service ;
- (3) The All-India Police Service ;
- (4) The Indian Audit and Accounts Service ;
- (5) The Military Accounts Department ;
- (6) The Indian Railway Accounts Service ;
- (7) The Imperial Customs Service ;
- (8) The Income Tax Officers (Class I, Grade II) Service ;
- (9) The Transportation (Traffic) and Commercial Departments of the Superior Revenue Establishment of State Railways ;
- (10) The Establishment Department of State Railways ;
- (11) The Postal Superintendents (Class II) Service.

The number of vacancies available for recruitment in each service, including the number of such vacancies reserved in favour of minority communities, will be announced later, but the total number of appointments to be made is expected to be over 125.

2. The examination will be conducted by the Federal Public Service Commission in the manner prescribed in Appendix II to the Rules.

3. Candidates securing the highest places on the results of the examination and eligible for appointment to the All-India Administrative Service or the Indian Foreign Service, as the case may be, will, subject to any preferences that may have been expressed by them, be appointed to those Services, up to the number of vacancies available. Thereafter, candidates will be appointed in order of merit to the vacancies in the remaining Services to which they may be eligible. Due consideration will be given to the preferences expressed by a candidate at the time of his application, but the Government of India reserve power to assign him to any Service for which he is a candidate.

Success in the examination confers no right to appointment, unless Government are satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the public service.

4. (a) A candidate for admission to the combined examination must have attained the age of 21 and must not have attained the age of 26 on the 1st August 1947, i.e., he must have been born not earlier than 2nd August 1921 and not later than 1st August, 1926. The maximum age limit will be relaxed by three years in favour of Scheduled Castes candidates.

(b) In the case of the Accounts and Allied Services, and the Income-tax Officers (Class I, Grade II) Service, a Government servant who is over the age of 26 and under the age of 27 (in the case of a Schedule Caste candidate who is under the age of 30) on the 1st August, 1947 and holds substantively a permanent appointment or has been in continuous service for a period of not less than two years in a Department or Office under the control of any of the authorities mentioned in column 1 below may be admitted to the examination for the corresponding Service mentioned in column 2, if he is recommended by the Head of his Department :—

(e) In exceptional cases the Federal Public Service Commission may treat a candidate, who has not any of the foregoing qualifications, as a qualified candidate, provided that he is recommended by the Central or Provincial Government, and has passed examinations conducted by other institutions, the standard of which, in the opinion of the Commissions, justifies his admission to the examination.

6. (i) Save as provided below, a candidate for the Indian Foreign Service, the Indian Audit and Accounts Service, the Military Accounts Department, the Indian Railway Accounts Service, the Imperial Customs Service, the Income Tax Officers' (Class-I, Grade II) Service, the Transportation (Traffic) and Commercial Departments of the Superior Revenue Establishment of State Railways, the Establishment Department of State Railways, and the Postal Superintendents (Class II) Service must be a male and either :—

(a) A British subject of Indian descent or domicile, or

(b) A Ruler or a subject of an Indian State or a native of a tribal area or territory adjacent to India in respect of whom a declaration has been made under Section 262 of the Government of India Act, 1935.

For the Indian Foreign Service and the Postal Superintendents (Class II) Service a woman candidate is also eligible provided she is unmarried or a widow without encumbrances. If such a candidate is selected, she will be appointed on the express condition that she must resign the service on marriage or remarriage.

(ii) A candidate for the All-India Administrative and Police Services must be a male and a British subject domiciled in the Provinces of Assam, Bihar, Bombay, the Central Provinces and Berar, Madras, the North West Frontier Province, Orissa or the United Provinces, or in a Chief Commissioner's Province or must be a native of a tribal area or territory adjacent to India in respect of whom a declaration has been made under Section 262 of the Government of India Act, 1935.

Provided that vacancies in the cadre of the All India Police Service of any Province will be filled only by persons domiciled in that Province or in the adjacent Chief Commissioner's Province, etc., as shown in Appendix V.

7. A candidate must be in good mental and bodily health and free from any physical defect likely to interfere with the discharge of his duties as an officer of the Service. A candidate who (after such medical examination as Government or the appointing authority, as the case may be, may prescribe) is found not to satisfy these requirements will not be appointed. Only candidates who are likely to be considered for appointment will be medically examined.

8. Candidates must pay the fees prescribed in Appendix III. No claim for a refund of any of these fees will ordinarily be entertained except to the extent stated in the Appendix, nor can they be held in reserve for any other examination or selection.

9. No candidate will be admitted to the examination unless he holds a certificate of admission from the Commission.

The decision of the Commission as to the eligibility or otherwise of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final.

10. Any attempt on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by any means may disqualify him for admission.

Note.—"Scheduled Castes" means any of the castes mentioned in the Government of India (Scheduled Castes) Order, 1936.

APPENDIX IV

Brief particulars relating to the Services to which recruitment is being made through this Examination (Detailed information may, if desired, be obtained from the Department concerned).

1. All India Administrative Service.

(a) Appointments will be made on probation for a period of one year which may be extended. Successful candidates will be required to undergo probation at such place and in such manner and pass such examinations during the period of probation as the Government of India may determine.

(b) If, in the opinion of Government, the work or conduct of an officer on probation is unsatisfactory or shows that he is unlikely to become efficient, Government may discharge him forthwith.

(c) On the conclusion of his period of probation, Government may confirm the officer in his appointment, or, if his work or conduct has in the opinion of Government been unsatisfactory, Government may either discharge him from the Service or may extend his period of probation for such further period as Government may think fit.

(d) If the power to make appointments in the Service is delegated by Government to any officer, that officer may exercise any of the powers of Government under clauses (b) and (c) above.

(e) A probationer will receive during probation an allowance of Rs. 300 per mensem. On successful completion of probation, a Probationer will be confirmed in the All-India Administrative Service. The salary for the first five years of service will be Rs. 350-400-450-450-500. The pay scales for subsequent years will be fixed on receipt of the recommendations of the Central Pay Commission.

(f) An officer belonging to the All-India Administrative Service will be liable to serve anywhere in India either under the Central Government or under a Provincial Government.

(g) The service will be pensionable but the right to substitute a contributory provident fund in lieu of pension is reserved.

(h) Officers of the All-India Administrative Service may be required to subscribe to the General Provident Fund.

2. The Indian Foreign Service.

(a) Appointments will be made on probation for a period which will not ordinarily exceed 3 years. Successful candidates will be required to spend a year under training in India and 18 months in a foreign university where they will be required to study such subjects as are prescribed including a foreign language. During their period of training probationers will be required to pass one or more examinations before they become eligible for confirmation in the Service.

(b) On the conclusion of his period of probation and on his passing the prescribed examinations Government may confirm the officer in his appointment, or, if his work or conduct has, in the opinion of Government, been unsatisfactory, Government may either discharge him from the Service or may extend his period of probation for such further period as Government may think fit.

(c) If, in the opinion of Government, the work or conduct of an officer on probation is unsatisfactory or shows that he is not likely to prove suitable for the Foreign Service, Government may discharge him forthwith.

(d) If the power to make appointments in the Service is delegated by Government to any officer, that officer may exercise any of the powers of Government under clauses (b) and (c) above.

(e) A probationer will receive the following pay during probation :—

First year Rs. 300 per mensem.

Second year Rs. 350 per mensem.

Third year Rs. 400 per mensem.

This may be supplemented as necessary by a State Scholarship towards the cost of study in a Foreign University.

Note.—The drawal of annual increments during probation will be contingent on the probationer passing the prescribed tests if any and showing progress to the satisfaction of Government.

On successful completion of probation, a probationer will be confirmed in the Indian Foreign Service. The salary for the first six years of service, including the three years of the probationary period, will be Rs. 300-350-400-450-450-500. The pay scales for subsequent years will be determined in the light of the recommendations of the Central Pay Commission. In addition members of the Service will receive such allowances as are considered necessary when serving in posts overseas.

(f) An officer belonging to the Indian Foreign Service will be liable to serve anywhere inside or outside India.

(g) Other conditions of service, e.g., leave, pension or Provident Fund will be determined by Government later.

(h) Officers of the Indian Foreign Service may be required to subscribe to the General Provident Fund.

3. All India Police Service.

(a) Appointments will be made on probation for a period of two years which may be extended. Successful candidates will be required to undergo probation at such place and in such manner and pass such examinations during the period of probation as Government may determine.

(d) If the power to make appointments in the Service is delegated by Government to any officer, that officer may exercise any of the powers of Government described in the above clauses.

9. Transportation (Traffic) and Commercial Departments of the Superior Revenue Establishment Department of State Railways.

(The arrangements and the rates of pay hereinafter described are subject to revision according to the requirements of the Service.)

(1) (a) Candidates selected for appointment will be appointed as probationary officers in the Transportation (Traffic) and Commercial Departments for a period of three years during which they will undergo the training as indicated at the end of para. 9.

(b) During this probationary period the agreement which probationary officers are required to sign may be terminated by three months' notice on either side.

(c) At the conclusion of the probationary term of a years, officers, who have passed, the written and oral tests prescribed in the subjects in which they have been trained, and, who are well reported on will be confirmed in the Transportation (Traffic) and Commercial Departments. On confirmation their agreement will be continued subject to their service being terminable on six months' notice on either side.

(d) Within 5 years of their appointment as probationers officers may be allocated to the Transportation (Traffic) or the Commercial Department. They will, thereafter, continue in the Department to which they are allotted unless it is considered necessary in the public interest to transfer any particular officer from one to the other Department.

(2) Probationers will be required to pass a language examination in Urdu by the Lower Standard, modified to suit the requirements of the Railways, before they can be confirmed or granted any increment beyond the first during the period of their probation. Probationers who can read, write and speak in Urdu may be exempted by the General Manager from passing the language examination. Failure to pass the examination within the probationary period involves liability to removal from service.

(3) Officers (including probationers) of the Transportation (Traffic) and Commercial Departments of the Superior Revenue Establishment of State Railways, recruited under these rules, will not be entitled to pension on quitting the service, but will be eligible throughout their service for the benefits of the State Railway Provident Fund, to which they will be required to subscribe, and by the rules of which Fund they will be required to abide.

(4) Pay will commence from the date of joining service. Service for increments will also count from that date.

(5) Officers recruited under these rules shall be eligible for leave in accordance with the rules for the time being in force applicable to officers of State Railways.

(6) Officers will ordinarily be employed throughout their service on the railway to which they may be posted on first appointment and will have no claim, as a matter of right, to transfer to some other Railway. But the Government of India reserve the right to transfer such officers in the exigencies of service to any other railway or project in or out of India.

(7) The relative seniority of officers appointed will ordinarily be determined by their order of merit in the competitive examination. The Government of India, however, reserve the right of fixing seniority at their discretion in individual cases. They also reserve the right of assigning to officers appointed otherwise than by a competitive examination positions in the seniority list at their discretion.

(8) The following are the rates of pay at present admissible to officers appointed in India to the Transportation (Traffic) and Commercial Departments of the Superior Revenue Establishment of State Railways :—

Persons recruited to the Transportation (Traffic) and Commercial Departments of the Superior Revenue Establishment of State Railways shall be considered on probation for a period of at least two years while under training and they shall draw during the probationary period (a) in the first year Rs. 250 and (b) in the next year, provided they have passed any departmental examinations that may be prescribed, Rs. 275, otherwise they will remain on Rs. 250. After two years, and provided they have passed all the departmental examinations prescribed they will start on the time-scale prescribed below, viz., Rs. 300. The stipulation regarding the passing of all departmental examinations after the 2nd year of their training does not apply to probationers selected for training in rates work who are finally examined at the end of their 3rd year. Such probationers will draw Rs. 300 per mensem in the third year of training on the completion of which they will in the fourth year start on Rs. 325 per mensem in the time-scale prescribed below, provided they have by that time passed all departmental examinations.

NOTE 1.—Departmental examinations will be held as may be required at the close of the courses as well as at intervals during the period of training and Probationers will be expected to pass any diploma or other tests prescribed by the University or other extra Railway Institution mentioned in item (7) above.

NOTE 2.—Provided he passes the examination at the end of his two years' training a probationer will be given charge of a working post on probation for a further year.

11. Postal Superintendents (Class II) Service.

(a) Appointments will be made on probation for a period which will not ordinarily exceed two years.

(b) If, in the opinion of Government the work or conduct of an officer on probation is unsatisfactory or shows that he is unlikely to become efficient, Government may discharge him forthwith.

(c) On the conclusion of his period of probation, Government may confirm the officer in his appointment, or, if his work or conduct has in the opinion of Government been unsatisfactory, Government may either discharge him from the Service or may extend his period of probation for such further period as Government may think fit provided that in respect of appointments to temporary vacancies, there will be no claim to confirmation.

(d) If no action is taken by Government under sub-rule (b) or (c) of this rule, the period after the prescribed period of probation will be treated as an engagement from month to month, terminable, on either side on the expiration of one calendar month's notice in writing.

(e) If the power to make appointments in the Service is delegated by Government to any officer, that officer may exercise any of the powers of Government described in the above clauses.

Selected candidates will be appointed as Probationers for training in the Department for a period which will not ordinarily exceed two years. They will receive pay at the rate of Rs. 200 a month for the first year. On satisfactory conclusion of the first year's training they will receive Rs. 220 a month for the second year. Those who make satisfactory progress during the second year's training and pass the prescribed departmental test will be appointed to the cadre of Superintendents of Post Offices and R. M. S. on a scale of Rs. 240—20—480—15—600 in alternate permanent vacancies in that grade.

12. The scales of pay and other conditions of service (including leave and pension rules) are likely to be revised in the light of the recommendations of the Central Pay Commission. Candidates will not be entitled to compensation, if they are adversely affected by any changes in the conditions of service which may subsequently be introduced in the light of orders passed on the recommendations of the Central Pay Commission or otherwise.
